Dark Art

How to Draw and Paint Witches and Their Worlds

By Bob Hobbs • 978-1-6006-1153-7 • £14.99 • paperback

- As a practising Warlock as well as an artist Bob is the authority on drawing Witches and their worlds
- A beautifully formatted book whose binding creates a replica of the Book of Shadows (mystical spell book) style
- Witch-related characters are huge in pop culture, for all age ranges, from Harry Potter to Buffy and Lord of the Rings

A book of visual inspiration, authentic reference and practical guidance is the best way to describe Dark Art: How to Draw and Paint Witches and Their Worlds, with instruction on drawing and painting imagery from the diverse world of witchcraft.

Perfect for fantasy artists who want to explore the festinating history of witchcraft and enhance their images and related paraphernalia, with a wealth of visual and textual information which offers artists the chance to introduce more realism to their work and gives advice on the market for witchcraft illustration. Featuring a rich tapestry of finished paintings, work-in-progress illustrations and sketches covering types of witches, settings, tools of the trade, both digital and traditional, and symbology, this is the essential guide to witchcraft for any fantasy artist or enthusiast.
